

Prova di lingua inglese:

1. Girolamo di Romano di Luchino – also known as Romanino – was born in Brescia, probably between 1484 and 1487. The first twenty years of his life are a mystery: nothing is known about his social origins or from who he learned the art from.
2. Libraries are for everyone, no matter their age or background. Children love the stories, students use them to study, and adults enjoy reading novels or learning new things. Many libraries now offer computers and internet access too.
3. Like every August, the Mostra Mercato of Pisogne will return to enchant the evenings in the medieval village. Music, flavors, perfumes, street artists will invade the streets and squares of the town, leading the visitor to discover a territory rich in ancient traditions
4. From Friday, September 26th to Sunday, September 28th in Pisogne there will be the 75th edition of the Mushroom and Chestnut Festival. A party for the whole village, animated by stands with typical local products, distribution of roasted chestnuts, and shows.
5. Modern libraries are not just about books. Many libraries now have computers, free Wi-Fi, and digital resources. People can borrow e-books, take online courses, or even learn new skills. Libraries combine the best of tradition and technology to help people in many ways.
6. In June, Diane visited her friends who live in Pisogne, Italy. This was Diane's first time in the city, and she enjoyed her opportunities to walk around and explore a very beautiful country in the north of Italy.
7. I have a younger brother. He just started high school. He is 14 and lives with my parents. They live in Pisogne. Sometimes they visit me in Brescia, where I live with my friends and where I study economics.
8. The church of Santa Maria in Silvis is now on the edge of the village of Pisogne but, in the past, it was one of the most important buildings in the Sebino area both for its artistic value, and because it was a baptismal church